

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

With significant updates, guests at The Clift Royal Sonesta Hotel will be welcomed by sophisticated and modern changes signifying a reawakening of the hotel's original craftsmanship fused with modern day San Francisco. Designed for beauty, adaptability and convenience, The Clift will become a place that reveals the past and embraces the accelerating pace of the future. The updated ambiance will engage traditional touches while enveloping the beauty of San Francisco.

With a nod to our iconic past, the hotel's renovation will include dramatically updated guest rooms, an all-new modern lobby experience, and much more - all in the midst of one of the city's most dynamic regions.

HOTEL HIGHLIGHTS

- Over a century old, The Clift hotel was originally constructed for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915
- The hotel has many years of history, with specific design touches to serve as a nod to the past
- The Clift is home to the famous "Big Chair." The French embroidery has recently been updated with a modern silver upholstery but the wink to guests remains underneath the chair
- Be welcomed to the hotel lobby with a series of warm neutrals with light driftwood, rich charcoal greys and metallic bronze accents
- Design elements emphasize the original wall textures and original exposed brick
